

Bad Feeling

I couldn't sleep last night
When I thought I heard you knock on my door
I could have sworn I heard you, baby
Just like I did the night before

CHORUS:

Well I've got this bad, bad feeling
You ain't gonna come 'round here no more

Should have seen it coming, baby
'Cause I guess I had it my way too long
You said you wanted something different
But I just kept on playing the same old song

CHORUS:

Now there's no fooling myself
Yeah, now I know I must have done you wrong

I took a chance on you, baby
When I watched you walk right out of my door
Thought you'd be coming back to me, baby
Just like you always did before

CHORUS:

Now I know this bad, bad feeling
Means it ain't gonna be you and me no more
