A promise weakened by the hands of time
Honest, I meant it when I said be mine
Eternal love was a dream
I hoped we could share
I could be wrong
But it seems love that's strong just ain't there

I'm coming into myself
It may leave you far behind
I'm changing my world

CHORUS:

Breaking away
And it's breaking your heart
Breaking away
And it's breaking your heart

Sorry is something I don't want to say
Heartache with no one to blame
Living a lie could be our mistake
I can't deny love's a feeling I just won't fake

I'm coming into myself
It may leave you far behind
I'm changing my world, and

CHORUS

Baby, I never wanted to hurt you
I know you're confused
Well, baby I am too
If the feeling we share could be less than true

Then let's not deny the love you and I had is through

I'm coming into myself
It may leave you far behind
I'm changing my world
